Northwest Florida Artifact & Fossil Show Coming to Marianna

Marianna, FL — History comes to life this spring as Visit Jackson County, Florida, at the Endeavor Convention Center hosts the Northwest Florida Artifact & Fossil Show on Saturday, March 14, 2026.

The one-day event will take place from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and will feature a wide variety of artifacts, fossils, and displays showcasing the rich natural and cultural history of Northwest Florida and the surrounding region. The show is open to the public and welcomes collectors, history enthusiasts, families, and anyone curious about the stories hidden beneath our feet.

Attendees can explore vendors and display tables filled with fossils, stone tools, and artifacts while learning more about Florida's prehistoric past. Concessions will be available throughout the day, making it a family-friendly outing for visitors of all ages.

Admission is $5 at the door, with free entry for children 17 and under. Vendor and display tables are available for $25. For additional information about attending or reserving as a vendor or display table, contact walkerb@jacksoncountyfl.gov or 850-482-8061

"This event is a great example of how heritage, education, and tourism intersect in Jackson County," said representatives from Visit Jackson County, Florida. "The Artifact & Fossil Show highlights our region's deep history while bringing visitors into Marianna to experience the Endeavor Convention Center and the surrounding community."

The event will be held at the Endeavor Convention Center, located at 4060 Gov. Rick Scott Drive, Marianna, FL 32448.
